

WHAT IS IT?

Building effective classroom strategies through distance learning has been one of teachers' biggest concerns in 2020. In response, researchers at St. Mary's College of California created this step-by-step guide on "Humanizing Online Teaching" for teachers new to presenting content virtually. We found this to be a great introduction to help you visualize what your online teaching style could look like.

IMPACT?

Effective Teaching in a virtual environment has likely been on your mind as an educator. This article aims to ease those fears. Instead of focusing on the technical aspects of online teaching, the team from St. Mary's provides strategies and pedagogical practices that promote care for the whole student. From building community to fostering equitable participation, they suggest simple steps to help you translate your teaching style to the digital classroom.
