

WHAT IS IT?

Four ways to enhance student responses in your classroom are by: following up with additional questions to correct answers, expecting students to answer questions completely and correctly, breaking student responses down to provide additional opportunities, and not allowing students to opt out.

IMPACT?

Increasing expectations on student responses will allow students to gain greater understanding of standards addressed. Furthermore, providing students with opportunities to think critically will increase academic achievement in your classroom.

TO LEARN MORE ABOUT THIS RESOURCE:

4 Ways to Enhance Student Learning